

Riding the Wave of Energy Disruption

The oil and gas industry is facing extremely challenging business environments. The current context combines a supply shock with unprecedented demand drop from COVID-19 pandemic, in addition to the wave of energy disruption. This results in ever more pressure on Energy sector to fundamentally transform its business models for cost competitiveness and resiliency.

Nonetheless, along with the challenges, lie opportunities. The crisis is pushing industry envelope to grow with higher efficiency, safer and cleaner operations.

How PTTEP, as National Oil Company, can ride along this wave of disruption and sustain Thailand's energy security as committed?
